NEW QUESTION: 3 Select a valid VRRP configuration from a list of possible configurations. (Choose three.) A. vrrp [group-number] preempt B. vrrp [group-number] priority [priority] C. standby [group number] preempt D. vrrp [group-number] ip [ip-address] E. standby [group number] priority [priority] Answer: A, B, D Explanation: You can eliminate configurations with the word `standby`, as that would be HSRP, not VRRP. Also, I think the options that put things like vrrp group 1 ip x.x.x.x are wrong. You don't need the word `group` in the configuration line. The number 1 is the group number. Anyway, just take a good look at a few valid VRRP configuration examples so that you will be able to recognize invalid ones.
