NEW QUESTION: 1When employees leave work early or purposefully work at a slow pace, they are engaging in A. personal aggression. B. property deviance. C. political deviance. D. production deviance. Answer: D
Explanation: Explanation: When employees leave work early or purposefully work at a slow pace, they are engaging in production deviance. In other words, they are intentionally performing at a less than optimal rate. Property deviance is the destruction or damaging of company equipment. Property deviance also includes misrepresentation of hours worked, since the time during which the employee claims to be working is technically the property of the company. Political deviance is dysfunctional interpersonal behavior, as for instance spreading rumors or undermining the authority of superiors. Personal aggression includes antisocial and even criminal behaviors like stealing, sexual harassment, and physical violence.
