NEW QUESTION: 1 A successor auditor is required to attempt communication with the predecessor auditor prior to:
A. Accepting the engagement.
B. Performing test of controls.
C. Testing beginning balances for the current year.
D. Making a proposal for the audit engagement.

Answer: A
Explanation: Explanation/Reference: Explanation: Choice "D" is correct. A successor auditor is required to attempt communication with the predecessor auditor prior to accepting a new engagement. Choice "A" is incorrect. A successor auditor is required to attempt communication with the predecessor auditor prior to accepting a new engagement. This certainly implies that such attempt will be made before any audit tests are performed; however, the requirement is stated in reference to the date of acceptance. Choice "B" is incorrect. A successor auditor is required to attempt communication with the predecessor auditor prior to accepting a new engagement. This certainly implies that such attempt will be made before any audit tests are performed; however, the requirement is stated in reference to the date of acceptance. Choice "C" is incorrect. A successor auditor is not required to attempt communication with the predecessor auditor prior to making a proposal for the audit engagement (remember that more than one auditor may be bidding for the engagement -- and it wouldn't be reasonable to expect the predecessor auditor to respond to all bidders). However, once a successor has been selected, that auditor must attempt communication with the predecessor auditor before actually accepting the engagement.
