NEW QUESTION: 2 Identify two features of the price break functionality provided in Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA) document types.
A. condition-dependent reductions in price B. means to provide price discounts C. change orders affecting pricing of specific lines D. price increase request from a supplier through the supplier portal E. payment method, which supports multiple-installment payment goods or services
Answer: A,D
Explanation:
Explanation/Reference: Price breaks are reductions in the price of an item depending on certain conditions such as purchasing in bulk or from a certain location. The Price Break region of the Lines page enables you to enter price break information for blanket purchase agreement lines. As a supplier, you can also terminate an existing contract to supply items by canceling document headers, lines, or schedules. Such cancellation request requires review and approval by the buying organization.
