NEW QUESTION: 2Click to expand each objective. To connect to the Azure portal, type <https://portal.azure.com> in the browser address bar. When you are finished performing all the tasks, click the 'Next' button. Note that you cannot return to the lab once you click the 'Next' button. Scoring occur in the background while you complete the rest of the exam. Overview The following section of the exam is a lab. In this section, you will perform a set of tasks in a live environment. While most functionality will be available to you as it would be in a live environment, some functionality (e.g., copy and paste, ability to navigate to external websites) will not be possible by design. Scoring is based on the outcome of performing the tasks stated in the lab. In other words, it doesn't matter how you accomplish the task, if you successfully perform it, you will earn credit for that task. Labs are not timed separately, and this exam may have more than one lab that you must complete. You can use as much time as you would like to complete each lab. But, you should manage your time appropriately to ensure that you are able to complete the lab(s) and all other sections of the exam in the time provided. Please note that once you submit your work by clicking the Next button within a lab, you will NOT be able to return to the lab. To start the lab You may start the lab by clicking the Next button. You need to deploy an application gateway named appgw1015 to meet the following requirements: * Load balance internal IP traffic to the Azure virtual machines connected to subnet0. * Provide a Service Level Agreement (SLA) of 99,99 percent availability for the Azure virtual machines. NEW QUESTION: 3 Sir Giles's irritating reserve, not even excused by a word of apology, reached the limits of his endurance. He respectfully protested. "I regret to find, sir," he said, "that I have lost my place in my employer's estimation. The man to whom you confide the superintendence of your clerks and the transaction of your business has, I venture to think, some claim (under the present circumstances) to be trusted." The banker was now offended on his side. "I readily admit your claim," he answered, "when you are sitting at your desk in my office. But, even in these days of strikes, co-operations, and bank holidays, an employer has one privilege left--he has not ceased to be a Man, and he has not forfeited a man's right to keep his own secrets. I fail to see anything in my conduct which has given you just reason to complain." Dennis, rebuked, made his bow in silence, and withdrew. Did these acts of humility mean that he submitted? They meant exactly the contrary. He had made up his mind that Sir Giles Mountjoy's motives should, sooner or later, cease to be mysteries to Sir Giles Mountjoy's clerk. Which selection identifies the device exemplified with "Did these acts of humility mean that he submitted?" last paragraph? A. submission B. rhetorical question C. query D. curio E. obviate information Answer: B Explanation: Explanation/Reference: The question asked that there is already a known answer to is considered rhetorical as it is unnecessary and usually used in literature for effect.
