Explanation: Sydney Johnson is the supply management professional for Scott Textile Industries of North America. Numerous antitrust and trade regulations as well as U.S. Federal procurement and public projects affect her daily operations. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) would require Sydney to ensure her warehouse and office met accessibility restrictions in restrooms, work areas, and in the parking lot. The Sherman Antitrust Act would make it illegal for her to act in combination, conspiracy, or collusion, with the intent of restricting competition in interstate commerce. The Prompt Payment Act requires Federal contractors supplying goods and services to be paid in a timely manner. The Service Contract Act would require her organization to pay the local prevailing wage if they utilized a Federal service contract.
