NEW QUESTION: 2You execute a report based on the location and are missing an asset. What might have happened?(There are two correct answers.)A. The asset has been fully depreciated. B. The asset was sold to a customer.C. The equipment assigned to the asset was moved.D. The asset was partially scrapped.Answer: B,CExplanation: When an asset is integrated with the equipment, changes in the equipment can be configured to update the asset. An asset sold will of course no longer show up in the company codes reports. Fully depreciated assets show up in reports because they are still active in the company and partial scrapping would not deactivate the asset either.
