NEW QUESTION: 1A customer has users who are connecting their smartphones to the network. The customer wants a secure and simple way to on-board these devices and then monitor how the devices are using the network. What do you know from this scenario?A. The customer needs to move to a pure Software-defined Networking (SDN) Solution.B. The customer needs to move toward cloud services.C. The customer needs to segment wired and wireless networking.D. The customer needs a Bring Your Own Device (BYOD) solutionAnswer: C

NEW QUESTION: 2Which of the following floors would be most appropriate to locate information processing facilities in a 6-stories building?A. BasementB. Sixth floorC. Ground floorD. Third floorAnswer: D*Explanation:You data center should be located in the middle of the facility or the core of a building to provide protection from natural disasters or bombs and provide easier access to emergency crewmembers if necessary. By being at the core of the facility the external wall would act as a secondary layer of protection as well. Information processing facilities should not be located on the top floors of buildings in case of a fire or flooding coming from the roof. Many crimes and theft have also been conducted by simply cutting a large hole on the roof. They should not be in the basement because of flooding where water has a natural tendency to flow down :-). Even a little amount of water would affect your operation considering the quantity of electrical cabling sitting directly on the cement floor under under your raise floor. The data center should not be located on the first floor due to the presence of the main entrance where people are coming in and out. You have a lot of high traffic areas such as the elevators, the loading docks, cafeteria, coffee shop, etc.. Really a bad location for a data center. So it was easy to come up with the answer by using the process of elimination where the top, the bottom, and the basement are all bad choices. That left you with only one possible answer which is the third floor. Source: HARRIS, Shon, All-In-One CISSP Certification Exam Guide, 5th Edition, Page425.

NEW QUESTION: 3During forensics investigations, investigators tend to first collect the system time and then compare it with UTC. What does the abbreviation UTC stand for?A. Universal Time for ComputersB. Universal Computer TimeC. Correlated Universal TimeD. Coordinated Universal TimeAnswer: D

NEW QUESTION: 4A. Option FB. Option BC. Option CD. Option DE. Option EF. Option AAnswer: C,E,F*Explanation:SNMPv1/v2 can neither authenticate the source of a management message nor provide encryption. Without authentication, it is possible for nonauthorized users to exercise SNMP network management functions. It is also possible for nonauthorized users to eavesdrop on management information as it passes from managed systems to the management system. Because of these deficiencies, many SNMPv1/v2 implementations are limited to simply a read-only capability, reducing their utility to that of a network monitor; no network control applications can be supported. To correct the security deficiencies of SNMPv1/v2, SNMPv3 was issued as a set of Proposed Standards in January 1998. -> A is correct. The two additional messages are added in SNMP2 (compared to SNMPv1) GetBulkRequest The GetBulkRequest message enables an SNMP manager to access large chunks of data. GetBulkRequest allows an agent to respond with as much information as will fit in the response PDU. Agents that cannot provide values for all variables in a list will send partial information. -> E is correct. InformRequest The InformRequest message allows NMS stations to share trap information. (Traps are issued by SNMP agents when a device change occurs.) InformRequest messages are generally used between NMS stations, not between NMS stations and agents. -> C is correct. Note: These two messages are carried over SNMPv3.
