NEW QUESTION: 1

レガシーアプリケーションをデータセンター内で実行されている仮想マシンからAmazon VPCに移動することを任務としています。残念ながら、このアプリは多くのオンプレミスサービスへのアクセスを必要とし、アプリを設定した人はあなたの会社ではまだ動作しません。さらに悪いことに、それに関する文書はありません。再設定せずに、VPC内で実行されているアプリケーションが内部の依存関係にアクセスしてアクセスできるようにするにはどうすればよいですか（3つの答えを選んでください） A. VPCインスタンスのElastic IPアドレス B.

オンプレミスのものと競合しないIPアドレススペース C.

VPN接続を許可するインターネットゲートウェイ。 D.

VPCと内部サービスを収容するネットワークとの間のAWS Direct Connectリンク E.

NEW QUESTION: 2 Refer to the exhibit. Which statement is true? A. IPv6 traffic can be forwarded from this router, but only on Ethernet1/0. B. Some IPv6 traffic will be blackholed from this router. C. IPv6 unicast routing is not enabled on this router. D. There is no issue with forwarding IPv6 traffic from this router. Answer: B Explanation: Explanation/Reference: Explanation: Here we see that the IPV6 default route shows two different paths to take, one via Ethernet 1/0 and one via Ethernet 0/0. However, only Eth 1/0 shows a next hop IPV6 address (the link local IPV6 address). There is no link local next hop addressed known on Eth 0/0. Therefore, traffic to all destinations will be load balanced over the two paths, but only half of the IPv6 traffic will be sent to the correct upstream router.

NEW QUESTION: 3With GETVPN, if a key server is configured to use multicast as the rekey transport mechanism, then under which of these conditions will the key server retransmit the rekey messages?A. it always retransmit the rekey messageB. it only retransmit the rekey message when DPD to the group members failsC. it only retransmit the rekey message when it does not receive the rekey acknowledgment from at least one group memberD. It never retransmit the rekey messagesE. it only retransmit the rekey message when it does not receive the rekey acknowledgment from all group memberAnswer: A*Explanation:Cisco Group Encrypted Transport VPNRetransmitting a RekeyMulticast rekeys are retransmitted by default. For unicast rekeys, if the key server does not receive the ACK, it retransmits the rekey. In either case, before retransmitting a rekey, the key server checks if there is a TEK or KEK rekey scheduled in the next 120 seconds. If so, it stops the current retransmission and waits for the scheduled rekey to happen.Group Member Access Control ListFor GET VPN, the traffic that has to be protected is defined statically on the key server using the ACL. The group member gets information about what has to be protected from the key server. This structure allows the key server to choose and change the policy dynamically as needed. In Secure Multicast, the key server ACL is defined inclusively. The ACL includes only the exact traffic that should be encrypted, with an implicit deny causing all other traffic to be allowed in the clear (that is, if there is no permit, all other traffic is allowed).GET VPN employs a different philosophy: The definition of which packets should be encrypted is delivered independently. GET VPN supports only statically defined traffic selectors. Policy can be defined by using both deny and permit ACLs on the key server. Only the deny ACL is allowed to be manually configured on a group member. The policies that are downloaded from the key server and configured on the group member are merged. Any ACL that is configured on the group member has predominance over what is downloaded from the key server.After the group member gets the ACL from the key server, the group member creates a temporary ACL and inserts it into the database. This ACL will be deleted if the group member is removed from the GDOI group for any reason. The packets that are going out of the interface are dropped by the group member if a packet matches the ACL but no IPsec SA exists for that packet.The key server can send a set of traffic selectors, which may not exactly match the group member ACL on the group member. If such differences occur, the differences have to be merged and resolved. Because the group member is more aware of its topology than the key server, the downloaded ACLs are appended to the group member ACL. The group member ACL (except the implicit deny) is inserted into the database first, followed by the downloaded key server ACL. The database is prioritized, and the database search stops whenever a matched entry is found.Link:
