NEW QUESTION: 1 Which of the following is a communication that damages an individual's reputation in the community, preventing them from obtaining employment? A. Defamation B. Duty of loyalty C. Gainsharing D. Constructive discharge
Answer: A
Explanation: Answer option C is correct. Defamation can be described as a communication, which is responsible for damaging an individual's reputation in the community, preventing him from obtaining employment or other benefits. Answer option B is incorrect. A constructive discharge occurs when an employer makes the workplace so hostile and inhospitable that an employee resigns. Answer option A is incorrect. The duty of loyalty requires that all employees act in the best interest of the employer and not solicit work away from the employer to benefit themselves. Answer option D is incorrect. Gainsharing is a system of management used by a business to get higher levels of performance through the involvement and participation of its people. As performance improves, employees share financially in the gain (improvement). Gainsharing is about people working smarter together and not just working harder.
