NEW QUESTION: 2During the work phase of the nurse-client relationship, the client says to her primary nurse, "You think that I could walk if I wanted to, don't you?" What is the best response by the nurse?A. "Yes, if you really wanted to, you could."B. "I think you're unable to walk now, whatever the cause."C. "Tell me why you're concerned about what I think."D. "Do you think you could walk if you wanted to?"Answer: BExplanation:Explanation/Reference:Explanation: This response answers the question honestly and nonjudgmentally and helps to preserve the client's self-esteem.Choice 1 is an open and candid response but diminishes the client's self-esteem. Choice 2 doesn't answer the client's question and is not helpful. Choice 3 increases the client's anxiety because her inability to walk might be directly related to an unconscious psychological conflict that has not been resolved. Psychosocial Integrity

NEW QUESTION: 3You work as a Project Administrator for company.com Inc. A manager informs you that one of his employees is leaving the company for six months. He wants you to keep the employee's Microsoft Project Server account, but make certain it is inactive so that it is not a part of the Build team function. What will you do to accomplish this task?A. You should lock the account in the User Details page.B. You should remove the user account permission Log On and Team Build.C. You should remove the user account from Active Directory.D. You should set the user account as Inactive in the Edit User page.Answer: DExplanation:You can mark a user as Inactive to keep the user from logging into the Project Server and to keep the account from being used in the Build team function. Marking an account as inactive does not delete the account. Answer option C is incorrect. There is no indication that the user and company are participating in Active Directory. Removing the user from Active Directory, in addition, can result in deleting the user account. Answer option B is incorrect. The permissions should be associated with security groups and should not be assigned directly to users. Answer option D is incorrect. You do not lock accounts when editing users in Microsoft Project Server. What are the steps to configure a managed account in Project Server 2010? The steps to configure a managed account in Project Server 2010 are as follows (assuming that 'company.comSVCAApp' account will be used to run the various service applications): 1.In the SharePoint Central Administration option, click Security. 2.Under the General Security tab, click on the Configure managed accounts option. 3.On the Managed Accounts page, click on the Register Managed Accounts option. 4.On the Register Managed Account page, perform the following tasks: In the User name box, type 'company.comSVCAApp'. In the Password box, type the password for the created account. Click the OK button.
