Explanation/Reference: Explanation: As a hole, the sentence clearly suggests that Martha wishes to emulate her sister in order to accomplish at least what her sister did. To attend a "highly respected" college would obviously require a good academic record, so the first word must essentially mean "excellent." Choices (A), (B), and D each provide such a word. The word for the second blank should relate to what's needed to achieve such a record. Among those three choices, only choice A makes sense.
