NEW QUESTION: 1You are a licensing specialist. Your customer is Proseware, Inc., an online bookstore that has $30 million in annual sales. Company Background Proseware, Inc., has a main office in New York and branch offices in the United States, Greece, and Malaysia. The company anticipates that sales will continue to grow this year. Network Description The company network contains 700 desktops that run Microsoft Windows XP Professional. Two hundred of the desktops run Microsoft Office 2000 Professional, which is covered by Software Assurance that expires in 13 months. The other 500 desktops run Office 2000 Standard, which is not covered by Software Assurance. The current desktop environment meets the company's needs. The network contains 100 Windows NT Server 4.0 servers that run the company's online Web services. The company wants to upgrade all the servers to Windows Server 2003. However, there is not enough budget to upgrade this year. The company is considering a Microsoft Exchange Server 2003 deployment, and it expects to purchase about 20 additional servers during the next three years. Current Licensing Solution Proseware, Inc., currently purchases Microsoft software through an Open Volume agreement. In the past, the company made license-only purchases on all server software licenses and did not invest in Software Assurance. Because of the geographical locations of the company offices, managing licenses is difficult. Business Goals The chief executive officer (CEO) states that the information technology (IT) department is too busy managing the server infrastructure. The IT department has the following goals: Increase the security of the network. Maintain stability in the organization's infrastructure. Ensure that the technology on new servers is kept current. Increase the return on IT investments. The IT department does not have time for basic desktop help desk requests. The department wants to find ways to gain additional technical support from Microsoft on desktop and server products that are purchased. End of repeated scenario You need to recommend a licensing solution for Proseware, Inc. What additional information do you need? A. the expected growth in sales for the next three years B. the additional desktop software that is in use C. the type of server software that the company plans to deploy in the next three years D. the expected growth in employees for the next three years Answer: C
