Explanation:
Explanation/Reference: Explanation: How the Changes in HTML 5 Will Affect SEO (Search Engine Optimization)? As a SEO expert, you are most likely interested mainly in those changes in the HTML 5 specification, which will affect your work. Here is one of them: A new <article> tag. The new <article> tag is probably the best addition from a SEO point of view. The <article> tag allows to mark separate entries in an online publication, such as a blog or a magazine. It is expected that when articles are marked with the <article> tag, this will make the HTML code cleaner because it will reduce the need to use  tags. Also, probably search engines will put more weight on the text inside the <article> tag as compared to the contents on the other parts of the page.
