Prompt Payment Act*Answer: B*Explanation:Sydney Johnson is the supply management professional for Scott Textile Industries of NorthAmerica. Numerous antitrust and trade regulations as well as U.S. Federal procurement and public projects affect her daily operations. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) would require Sydney to ensure her warehouse and office met accessibility restrictions in restrooms, work areas, and in the parking lot. The Sherman Antitrust Act would make it illegal for her to act in combination, conspiracy, or collusion, with the intent of restricting competition in interstate commerce. The Prompt Payment Act requires Federal contractors supplying goods and services to be paid in a timely manner. The ServiceContract Act would require her organization to pay the local prevailing wage if they utilized a Federal service contract.

NEW QUESTION: 4 Which of the following is the GREATEST risk when implementing a data warehouse?
A. Data duplication
B. Data that is not updated or current
C. Access controls that are not adequate to prevent data modification
D. increased response time on the production systems
Answer: C
Explanation: Explanation/Reference: Explanation: Once the data is in a warehouse, no modifications should be made to it and access controls should be in place to prevent data modification. Increased response time on the production systems is not a risk, because a data warehouse does not impact production data. Based on data replication, data duplication is inherent in a data warehouse. Transformation of data from operational systems to a data warehouse is done at predefined intervals, and as such, data may not be current.
