NEW QUESTION: 2A project manager is working in a country where it is customary to pay the police for private protection services. The project manager's supervisor tells him that in another country, that would be considered a bribe. What is the BEST way for the project manager to proceed?A. Ask the supervisor for guidanceB. Do not pay the police for private protection services, because that would be a bribeC. Consult the Cost Management Plan about paymentD. Pay the police for private protection services, because it is customary in the country they are operating inAnswer: DExplanation:Some questions on the exam might ask you about how to operate in another country. In this case, the question is about whether or not something is a bribe. Clearly, if it's a bribe, you can't pay it. But is it? If a payment to a government official (or anyone else) is customary, then it's not a bribe. You should go ahead and pay the police - as long as it's acceptable and legal in that country.
