NEW QUESTION: 1 Given:

public class Counter { public static int getCount(String[] arr) { int count = 0; for(String var:arr) { if(var!=null) count++; } return count;} public static void main(String[] args) { String[] arr =new String[4]; arr[1] = "C"; arr[2] = ""; arr[3] = "Java"; assert (getCount(arr) < arr.length); System.out.print(getCount(arr)); }}

 And the commands:

javac Counter.java java -ea Counter
```

 What is the result?
A. 0
B. NullPointerException is thrown at runtime
C. Compilation fails
D. 1
E. AssertionError is thrown at runtime
Answer: E
Explanation: The command line

javac Counter.java

 will compile the code. The command line

java -ea Counter
```

 will run the code with assertions enabled. The following line:

```
assert (getCount(arr) < arr.length);
```

 where the Boolean expression

getCount(arr) < arr.length

 will evaluate to false, will ensure that an AssertionError is thrown at runtime. Note: The

javac

 command compiles Java source code into Java bytecodes. You then use the Java interpreter - the

java

 command - to interpret the Java bytecodes. Note 2: The

```

 tool launches a Java application. It does this by starting a Java runtime environment, loading a specified class, and invoking that class's main method. The method declaration must look like the following:

```
public static void main(String args[])
```

 Parameter

```
-ea

: enable assertions[:<package name>"..." |:<class name>]

-ea
```

[:<package name>"..." |:<class name>] Enable assertions. Assertions are disabled by default. With no arguments,

enableassertions

 or

```
-ea

 enables assertions. Note 3: An assertion is a statement in the Java™ programming language that enables you to test your assumptions about your program. Each assertion contains a boolean expression that you believe will be true when the assertion executes. If it is not true, the system will throw an error.

NEW QUESTION: 3You have a server named Server1 that is hosted in an Azure virtual machine. Server1 contains the following:
* One instance of SQL Server 2016 Enterprise
* 10 databases
* 500 stored procedures
You have a database named Database1 that is hosted on Server1. Database1 contains 100 queries that are executed dynamically from web applications. You plan to remove data from the procedure cache on Database1. You have the following requirements:
* Changes to Database1 must not affect other databases that are hosted on Server1
* Changes to Database1 must not affect the performance of queries that are stored in other databases.
* The solution must minimize administrative effort. You need to remove the data from the procedure cache as quickly as possible. What should you do?
A. Write a script that iterates through each stored procedure definition and add WITH RECOMPILE to the definition.
B. Run DBCC DROPCLEANBUFFERS.
C. Run DBCC FREEPROCCACHE.
D. Run ALTER DATABASE SCOPED CONFIGURATION CLEAR PROCEDURE CACHE in the context of Database 1.
Answer: D
Explanation: Explanation You should run ALTER DATABASE SCOPED CONFIGURATION CLEAR PROCEDURE CACHE in the context of Database! This statement lets you change the settings of a database without affecting other databases that are installed on the instance of SQL Server 2016.
