NEW QUESTION: 3When preparing a business continuity plan, who of the following is responsible for identifying and prioritizing time-critical systems?A. Senior business unit managementB. BCP committeeC. Executive management staffD. Functional business units
Answer: AExplanation:Explanation/Reference:Explanation:Senior management is ultimately responsible for all phases of the plan, and who should be most concerned about the protection of its assets. They must sign off on all policy issues, and they will be held liable for overall success or failure of a security solution.Incorrect Answers:A: If possible the BCP plan should be endorsed by the Executive management staff, but the Executive management staff is not responsible for identifying and prioritizing time-critical systems.C: The BCP committee does not identify and prioritize systems. The BCP committee oversees, initiates, plans, approves, tests and audits the BCP. It also implements the BCP, coordinates activities, approve the BIA survey. The BCP committee also oversees the creation of continuity plans and reviews the results of quality assurance activitiesD: Functional business units are a part of the BCP committee. Functional business units are not responsible for identifying and prioritizing time-critical system.References:Stewart, James M., Ed Tittel, and Mike Chapple, CISSP: Certified Information Systems Security Professional Study Guide, 5th Edition, Sybex, Indianapolis, 2011, p. 55
