Léopold Sédar Senghor, the Senegalese poet and statesman, leading a life of mythic proportions. Born in a small West African village in 1906, Senghor had directed a movement against French colonial rule that brought Senegal independence in 1959. Senghor served as Senegal's first elected president from 1960 to 1980. Because of Senghor's political influence, therefore, Senegal is today one of Africa's most stable and affluent nations. After World War II, Senghor has entered politics and held a number of elected positions in France and Senegal between 1946 and 1959. During this time, working ceaselessly in African independence movements, all the while it emphasizes the importance of African cultural identity. Senghor's efforts contributed to Charles de Gaulle's grant of national sovereignty to Senegal and other West African countries in 1959. One legend about Senghor claim that at the moment of his birth, a tree on the ground fell and split, releasing a great spirit that entered the newborn's body. Senghor himself did not believe this story, true or not, the tale on the other hand gives an appropriately mythic dimension to the life of a man honored for his courageous and progressively work for the freedom of African peoples.
