NEW QUESTION: 3 On a train, an individual is watching a proprietary video on Joe's laptop without his knowledge. Which of the following describes this? A. Shoulder surfing B. Illegal downloading C. Interference D. Tailgating Answer: A Explanation: Explanation/Reference: Explanation: Looking at information on a computer screen without the computer user's knowledge is known as shoulder surfing. Shoulder surfing is using direct observation techniques, such as looking over someone's shoulder, to get information. Shoulder surfing is an effective way to get information in crowded places because it's relatively easy to stand next to someone and watch as they fill out a form, enter a PIN number at an ATM machine, or use a calling card at a public pay phone. Shoulder surfing can also be done long distance with the aid of binoculars or other vision-enhancing devices. To prevent shoulder surfing, experts recommend that you shield paperwork or your keypad from view by using your body or cupping your hand.
